Mr. Muhammad stated that he fired several rounds at the soldiers with the intent of killing them. Mr. Muhammad further stated that he would have killed more soldiers if they had been on the parking lot.*

Mr. Muhammad stated that he fled in his vehicle and drove down Markham and got onto Shackleford Road. Mr. Muhammad stated that he got onto I-630 heading east until he was stopped by Little Rock Police Officers and I-630 and I-30.

*At the time of the shooting there were approx. fifteen Army and civilian personnel inside the Recruiting Station besides the two soldiers that were shot outside. Several of the rounds went into the Recruiting Station but did not strike anyone inside. Mr. Muhammad was charged with fifteen counts of a Terroristic Act for the individuals inside the Recruiting Station.
